

LOVE & LAUGHTER

Week 2: How to Fight Biblically DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

RECAP

In this second sermon looking at how to bring more love and laughter into our marriages today, Josh walks through Ephesians 4:25-32 and gives couples seven practical steps on how to fight fair in their marriages.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. Week two is all about learning how to fight biblically (in a way that's fair) with your spouse. Growing up, how did you see your parents fight? How did they resolve conflict? Was it a healthy example or not?
2. Josh started by discussing how an uncalled penalty ruined the season for the New Orleans Saints, and then made the analogy that uncalled penalties can wreck marriages. In marriages today, what are some uncalled penalties that spouses can commit that can wreck a marriage?
3. Read Ephesians 4:25-32. Applying it not to your marriage but to your overall life as a Christian, which verses have been the hardest for you to implement in your everyday life?
4. Look at the 7 Ways to Fight Biblically from the message notes. As a group, walk through each of them and share examples of how each of these have played out in your marriage. Whenever possible, use these seven ways as prompts to build up your spouse and encourage each other!

NEXT STEP

- If you're a married couple looking to apply biblical principles to improve your marriage, take the Love 31 Challenge!
