Week 6: New Kingdom
DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

RECAP

In this seventh sermon looking at the story of Jesus' life and ministry, we walked through eyewitness accounts of Jesus' resurrection and how his resurrection should still impact us today.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. Josh started by talking about the idea of what it would be like if he still lived like Virginia was a British colony (paying taxes, driving on the left side of the road). If you're married, what would happen if you started living as if your wedding never took place? What would happen if you went to work and acted like you had never gotten a promotion?
2. Josh spent some time reminding us that Luke's account is a carefully investigated recording of eyewitness accounts, not a made-up fable or fairytale. How does that strengthen your belief that the resurrection of Jesus actually happened? How differently do you treat fairytales from eyewitness accounts?
3. The BIG Idea for the week was: nobody expected no body. When we read how skeptical the disciples were of Jesus' resurrection at first, does that give these eyewitness accounts more or less credibility? How do you think you would have reacted if you were there?
4. Josh shared three ways the resurrection of Jesus should change us (in the Message Notes). Walk through each of the three and ask: am I doing this? Am I living like the resurrection of Jesus actually happened and it isn't just a fairytale?

NEXT STEP

Next week we're starting a new message series called You Asked For It!, based on questions submitted on Easter Sunday. Who can you bring with you to this new message series?
